

IARc Typical Course Sequence

The Bachelor of Fine Arts in Interior Architecture is a 4-year, first professional degree, requiring 120 semester hours of credit for completion, effective Fall 2019.

FIRST YEAR

Fall

IAR 101 Environmental Design I 4
IAR 110 Design Visualization I 2
IAR 124 Intro to Sustainable Design (GPR) 3
ENG 101 Composition* (GEC) 3
12 hrs.

Spring

IAR 102 Environmental Design II 4
IAR 112 Design Visualization II 3
IAR 221 History and Theory of Design I* (GFA) 3
GEC Course* 3
GEC Course* 3
16 hrs.

SECOND YEAR

Fall

IAR 201 Environmental Design III 6 (Speaking Intensive)
IAR 211 Visual Communication I 2
IAR 222 History and Theory of Design II 3
GEC Course* 3
14 hrs.

Spring

IAR 202 Environmental Design IV 6 (Writing Intensive)
IAR 212 Visual Communication II 2
IAR 332 Interior Architecture Materials 3
GEC Course* 3
14 hrs.

THIRD YEAR

Fall

IAR 301 Interior Architecture I 6
IAR 311 Computer Aided Design 3
IAR 334 Light and Sound 3
GEC Course with Lab* 4
16 hrs.

Spring

IAR 302 Interior Architecture II 6
IAR 331 Social and Behavioral Aspects 3
IAR 333 IAR Construction & Bldg. Systems 3
GEC Course* 3
15 hrs.

SUMMER

(Between third and fourth year)

IAR 452 Internship 3

FOURTH YEAR

Fall

IAR 411 Interior Architecture III 6
IAR 451 Professional Practice in IAR 3
IARc Experience 3
GEC Course* 3
15 hrs.

Spring

IAR 412 Interior Architecture IV 6
IARc Experience 6
GEC Course* 3
15 hrs.

*Denotes a General Education Curriculum (GEC) course. See the UNCG University Catalog for details and requirements for the General Education Curriculum.

Students may choose to study abroad for a semester or a year sometime during their 3rd or 4th years. Students planning to study abroad need to consult with the IARc Study Abroad Coordinator to adjust the course sequence.

IARc Experience (9 hrs) offers students opportunities for educational experiences beyond the classroom in the form of study abroad, field study, practicum, design thesis, concentrated electives, or a second internship.

(This sequence is intended to represent a typical schedule. Actual schedules will vary from student to student according to prior education, availability of classes, attendance of summer sessions, etc.)