

Application for Design Studies Undergraduate Minor

A minor in Design Studies is available for majors outside the Department of Interior Architecture. The minor requires a total of 18 credit hours. Once admitted into the Design Studies minor, the student meets with the Department Chair to identify appropriate courses to take. The plan of study for the minor can be designed to focus on sustainability, design thinking, design theory, entrepreneurship, historic perspectives, or design fundamentals.

A cumulative GPA of C (2.0) or better must be achieved in the courses taken toward a minor.
